

This Sunday's Gospel was Luke 16:19-31: the Rich Man and Lazarus

What is unusual about this Parable? _____

Two men are named in this parable. Who are they? _____

Why is the rich man not named? _____

What disease did Lazarus likely have? _____

What was the sin of the Rich Man? What did he suffer for? _____

According to some Church Fathers, who does the Rich Man represent? _____

Where can we see this in the reading? _____

According to some Church Fathers, who does Lazarus represent ? _____

How can we know? _____

Who were the closing comments (v. 31) aimed at? _____

Why? _____
