PENTECOST SUNDAY

TONE 7

Instead of the Trisagion, we sing...

“As many as have been baptized in Christ have put on Christ. Alleluia!”

Prokeimenon in the 8th Tone (Ps 19)

Their proclamation has gone out into all the earth, and their words to the ends of the universe!

The heavens are telling the glory of God, and the firmament proclaims His handiwork!

EPISTLE: ACTS 2:1-11

IN THOSE DAYS, of when the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. And suddenly a sound came from heaven like the rush of a mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting. And there appeared to them tongues as of fire, distributed and resting on each one of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance. Now there were dwelling in Jerusalem Jews, devout men from every nation under heaven. And at this sound the multitude came together, and they were bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in his own language. And they were amazed and wondered, saying, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us in his own native language? Parthians and Medes and Elamites and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabians, we hear them telling in our own tongues the mighty works of God." +

Alleluia in the 1st Tone (Ps 33)

By the Word of the Lord the heavens were made; and all their host by the Spirit of His mouth!

The Lord looked down from heaven, and saw all the sons of men.

GOSPEL: JOHN 7:37-52; 8:12

AT THAT TIME, on the last day of the feast, the great day, Jesus stood up and proclaimed, "If any one thirst, let him come to me and drink. He who believes in me, as the scripture has said, 'Out of his heart shall flow rivers of living water.'" Now this he said about the Spirit, which those who believed in him were to receive; for as yet the Spirit had not been given, because Jesus was not yet glorified. When they heard these words, some of the people said, "This is really the prophet." Others said, "This is the Christ." But some said, "Is the Christ to come from Galilee? Has not the Scripture said that the Christ is descended from David, and comes from Bethlehem, the village where David was?" So there was a division among the people over him. Some of them wanted to arrest him, but no one laid hands on him. The officers then went back to the chief priest and Pharisees, who said to them, "Why did you not bring him?" The officers answered, "No man ever spoke like this man!" The Pharisees answered them, "Are you led astray, you also? Have any of the authorities or of the Pharisees believed in him? But this crowd, who do not know the law, are accursed." Nicodemus, who had gone to him before, and who was one of them, said to them, "Does our law judge a man without first giving him a hearing and learning what he does?" They replied, "Are you from Galilee too? Search and you will see that no prophet is to rise from Galilee." Again Jesus spoke to them, saying, "I am the light of the world; he who follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life." +

Instead of "It is truly meet..."

Rejoice, O Queen!

Glory of Mothers and Virgins!

No mouth, however sweet or fluent, is eloquent enough to praise you worthily!

Every mind is overawed by your childbearing.

Therefore with one voice we glorify you!
